Teen Classes

Registration deadline for all activities is two weeks prior to the start of the class unless otherwise noted.

Civiteen Club of Rockville

Teens with learning disabilities will experience quality trips and activities that can help promote the positive development of social and life skills in an environment of caring and friendship. One goal of the program is for participants to improve self-esteem, self-confidence and gain a sense of independence. We provide opportunities to share, care and have fun. Participants should be able to indicate basic needs and wants. For more information and a schedule of events, call the Teen Programs Office at 240-314-8634.

Community Recreation Special Interests

The Finest! Auditions

If you are interested in pursuing theatre as a major interest, come out and audition for this talented City of Rockville performance troupe. If selected, participants will appear in performances at local and area theatres, community centers, schools, and churches. Training includes: acting, spoken word interpretation, stage decorum, Universal Expressionist Dance, improvisation, and identifying and developing your natural talents and abilities. Time is spent with theatre professionals and recreation leaders who are experienced. Emphasis is placed on developing self-discipline, self-control, self-confidence, personal integrity, health and fitness. In cooperation with KhamKam Productions.

Teen Classes

Registration deadline for all activities is two weeks prior to the start of the class unless otherwise noted.

Babysitting for Teens

Teens practice basic first-aid, accident prevention and emergency actions in this two-session course. Discussions include basic feeding, characteristics of children and personal safety. Role-playing and hands-on practice help prepare teens to become qualified babysitters. A certificate is provided upon completion of course (four and a half hours). Note: Children should not be dropped off unsupervised. All parents need to sign forms at the beginning of class.
